palmer
for lovers of food

Our series

It is said that we taste a dish with our eyes before we even take our first bite. And every true lover of food, from the Michelin-starred to the enthusiastic home cook, knows anticipation is the finest of seasonings. Our collection is designed to engage all of the senses. Rich colors and beautifully textured finishes transform every meal into a dish worth celebrating.

Like the foods they will serve, all our materials come from the earth. Made from porcelain or stoneware, finished with a variety of glazes, built to make quality tableware. We pride ourselves on our use of natural colors, inspired by real ingredients, to intensify or complement your dish. Inspired by the rich, sumptuous colors of spices, the silky textures of soups and sauces, our collection is a feast for the eyes; a celebration of our love of food. Purposefully compact, each series comes with just the right number of pieces to deliver a complete dining experience. Or mix and match to curate a signature dining experience that is all you.

- All our series are made from stoneware, only our Kiryu series is light weight porcelain.
- Everything is oven-, microwave- and dishwasher safe.
- A lot of series in our range are made of reactive glaze. Within these series every item is unique.
